A Message from Fr Joseph

We like to attend parties, be treated to treats and have fun while listening to good music. Jesus explained for us the Kingdom of God with an analogy of a wedding reception in which we are invited to participate. Speaking about the king inviting his son to the wedding feast, he tells us the truth about God's Kingdom.

The king is God, the feast is the salvation brought to us by the Son of God, and the servants are the prophets and apostles. Generous God has an open invitation for all of us; his son is in love, 'Come and share my joy. Everything is ready.' But they didn't want to join the celebration, because they considered other matters more important. But refusing the invitation, they rejected God's love. Jesus is reminding us that in life we don't have to go alone.

Salvation is so close. Come! The invitation is renewed and God speaks today to you. Come!

Jesus is calling us today and during the week to share the wedding. But we need to have a wedding dress in order not to be thrown outside in the dark. It is true that this 'garment' is more internal than external. It is given by God Himself, the Creator of grace and all goodness in the human soul. But everyone who is invited must say "yes" to the Lord, must accept His law and fully respond to the requirements of Christian life.

Are we ready to accept the "wedding attire"?

Meditating on today's Word of God with the greatest humility, let us be of good cheer and accept now the Lord's invitation to the Eucharistic 'Banquet'.

LOOK CLOSER...

The Wedding Feast.

Throughout the scriptures, the image of marriage and weddings is often used to describe how God loves us. The Church tells us that if we want to know about how Jesus loves, we should look to passionate, committed married couples - as they are an image (and a sacrament) of Christ's love for the Church. Talk about it: Think of a committed married couple. What are some of the characteristics of their love (eg. forgiving, caring, etc.)?

WHAT'S IN YOUR PRAYER SPACE?

Wedding Rings.

Lord Jesus,
You are our beloved bridegroom.
You call us into a deep and loving relationship with you.
Teach us how to love.
Amen.

We are hoping that playgroup will be back this term on Thursday mornings!! YAY!!! Please watch this space for advice on when it will be starting.

Feast of St Teresa of Jesus - 15 October

Born at Avila (Spain) in 1515, she died at Alba de Tormes in 1582. She left her aristocratic family for the Carmelite monastery in Avila at the age of twenty, but only after two decades of dryness in prayer felt an inner conversion to Christ. Honoured as a spiritual writer and mystic who experienced and comprehensively described the life of prayer. Remembered as a strong, practical reformer who restored the strict Carmelite observance of poverty, solitude, and austerity.

Blessed Carlo Acutis

Carlo Acutis was a Catholic Italian teenager who died in 2006 from leukemia and will be beatified October 10 in Assisi. He was born in 1991 and from a young age seemed to have a special love for God, even though his parents weren't especially devout. He loved to pray the Rosary and make Holy Hour, he designed a website devoted to documenting Eucharistic miracles around the world. It can be accessed here: http://www.miracoli\_eucaristici.org/.

Carlo was also known for defending kids at school who were picked on, for gaming, designing movies and soccer. On the young Saint, Archbishop Domenico Sorrentino of Assisi stated "Carlo is a boy of our time. A boy of the internet age, and a model of holiness of the digital age."

On his website he states, "The more often we receive the Eucharist, the more we will become like Jesus, so that on this earth we will have a foretaste of heaven."

On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us; for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.	(R.) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. 1. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. (R.) 3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. (R.) 4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel

Mt 22:1-10
 A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Whomsoever you find invite to the wedding.

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He dispatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.'

Reflection by Greg Sunter

This gospel parable is a reflection of the way in which the message of God has been extended to people through time. The first invitation was extended to the Israelites who initially accepted the message of God but in time lost the focus. Jesus further extended the invitation to the Gentiles, viewed by the Jews as unworthy of such a relationship with God. Finally, within the early Christian communities there were some who, despite belonging to the community, failed to live appropriately and demonstrate their acceptance of the message of God.

This gospel parable reflects the inclusive way in which Jesus lived his life. In many ways, Jesus was a scandal in his society because he didn't obey the social boundaries. He was very clear in being inclusive and attentive to those who were normally shunned. Today, those boundaries are just as clear and easily identified but the methods of excluding people have perhaps become a bit more subtle. Who are the 'shunned' and 'left out' in our society today? Where do the boundaries lie? Who would Jesus be reaching out to and seeking to include in today's society?
